Holidays,
Simplified

Welcome! Are you back into your Fall routine now? Whether back to school and activities with kids (or for you!), autumn outdoor chores, or just enjoying cool mornings and evenings, we sense through the change of seasons some Holidays just around the corner!

We hope everyone uses this time to reflect on our many blessings while gathering pumpkins, planting pansies, planning travel and baking, before the usual flurry of Holidays activities arrive.

In times of shared uncertainty such as we face right now with the economy, an election, and perhaps personal life changes, we naturally turn to practical and affordable gifts for friends, relatives and business colleagues.

For suggestions to simplify this year's shopping with thoughtful, practical gifts to last beyond the flurry of the season, see Holiday Wishes and some of our affiliates for ideas (below). Consider a Springboard Gift Certificate for someone who could benefit from educational and informational support this Season.

than reaching down to lift up another"*

Tim Russert , 1950-2008

Warm regards,
